1. Pentecost reminds us that the Holy Spirit is poured out on everyone, not just the most qualified or put-together. If you belong to Jesus, His Spirit lives in you right now, and your voice matters.
2. The miracle of Pentecost shows that God speaks through ordinary people in ways others can truly understand. You don't need a stage or perfect words—God uses your everyday life and conversations to share His truth.
3. The gospel has always been for all people, crossing every barrier of language, culture, and background. The Spirit meets people where they are and makes the message of Jesus clear to their hearts.
4. Salvation is an open invitation to everyone who calls on the name of the Lord. No one is too far gone or too unqualified to receive the grace of Jesus.
5. Pentecost is not just a past event but an ongoing mission for the church today. As Spirit-filled people, we are called to speak boldly so others can hear and respond to the good news.
